Landscape Business "Twenty for 2020" New Product Award winners announced

PLYMOUTH, Minn. – Landscape Business announced its selections for the "Twenty for 2020" New Product Awards. The Landscape Business Twenty for 2020 New Product Awards recognize products for the commercial landscape and irrigation markets.* Products were judged by the EPG Media and Specialty Information staff based on innovation, marketability and application within the market.

The 20 winning products are profiled in the Landscape Business section of the summer edition of OPE Business, and will also be featured online at Landscape-Business.com

* Manufacturers were allowed to submit more than one new product for consideration, as long as the product was introduced to the market between June 2, 2019, and June 1, 2020. The 20 winners were selected from among qualifying nominations.

EPG Media and Specialty Information produces Landscape-Business.com, OPE Business magazine and SportsField Management magazine, as well as a wide range of publications and digital properties for other industries.
